- (b) where a party is considered to be involved in a terrorist act by such State or other organisation as the Minister may approve; or
 - (c) where it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the party is subject to the control or influence of parties outside Mauritius, and the National Sanctions Committee reasonably suspects that it is concerned in the commission, preparation or instigation of an act of international terrorism, direct the Secretary for Home Affairs to declare that party as a designated party.

(2) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall, on the direction of the National Sanctions Committee under subsection (1), immediately declare that party as a designated party.

(3) The National Sanctions Committee may, for the purpose of subsection (1), consult and seek assistance from any public sector agency as may be necessary to determine whether, on reasonable grounds, there is sufficient evidence to support the designation of a party.

(4) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a member of the National Sanctions Committee or a public sector agency shall furnish to the National Sanctions Committee any information, including confidential material, as may be required to assist the National Sanctions Committee in identifying a party under subsection (1).

(5) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where, at any time, a public sector agency receives or otherwise becomes aware of any information relevant to the designation of a party, the public sector agency shall forthwith transmit that information to the National Sanctions Committee.

(6) A declaration under this section shall not be conditional upon the existence of criminal proceedings and shall operate without prior notice to the proposed designated party.

10. Third party request for declaration as designated party

(1) Any country which, pursuant to UNSCR 1373 or any other international obligation, makes a request to declare a party as a designated party under this Act shall transmit the details of such request to Mauritius through the appropriate diplomatic channels.

(2) The Ministry responsible for the subject of foreign affairs shall, on receipt of a request made under subsection (1), immediately submit the request to the National Sanctions Secretariat for a determination by the National Sanctions Committee as to whether there are reasonable grounds to declare the party as a designated party under this Act.

(3) A request to declare a party as a designated party shall be made in such form and manner as the National Sanctions Committee may determine and the request shall provide –

- (a) as much relevant information as possible on the party proposed to be declared, including sufficient identifying information to allow for the accurate and positive identification of the party; and
- (b) a statement containing as much detail as possible on the basis for the proposed declaration, including specific information to support a determination that the party meets the relevant declaration criteria under section 9(1)(a), (b) or (c), together with any other supporting information or documents.

(4) Where the National Sanctions Committee determines that there are reasonable grounds to declare a party as a designated party under this section, it shall direct the Secretary for Home Affairs to immediately declare the party as a designated party.

(5) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall, on the direction of the National Sanctions Committee under subsection (4), immediately declare that party as a designated party.

(6) Where the Secretary for Home Affairs submits a request for designation and freezing of funds or other assets to another country, he shall provide in the request as much identifying information, and specific information supporting the designation, as available.

(7) A declaration under this section shall not be conditional upon the existence of criminal proceedings and shall operate without prior notice to the proposed designated party.

11. Dissemination of declaration

(1) The National Sanctions Secretariat shall, immediately after a declaration is made under section 9 or 10 –

- (a) give public notice, in such manner as the National Sanctions Committee may determine, of such declaration; and
- (b) direct FIU to immediately disseminate such declaration to the supervisory authorities, the investigatory authorities, the reporting persons, and any other relevant public or private agency.

(2) Where a dissemination is made under subsection (1), sections 23 and 24 shall apply immediately.

12. List of designated parties

The National Sanctions Secretariat shall keep and maintain a list of parties declared as designated parties and shall, as and when a party is declared as a designated party under this Act, cause the name and relevant particulars of that party to be inserted in the list.

13. Designated party to be notified

(1) Where the Secretary for Home Affairs declares a party as a designated party, he shall issue a notice, in such manner as he may determine, to that party informing him or it of the following –

- (a) the grounds for declaration;
- (b) the information relied on in making the declaration, with the exception of information which, in the opinion of the National Sanctions Committee, should not be disclosed on the grounds of national security;
- (c) the duration of the declaration;
- (d) details of the freezing order and any prohibition imposed under this Act;
- (e) the right to make an application for judicial review in accordance with this Act; and
- (f) any other information that he may determine.

(2) Where a designated party is a citizen of Mauritius or resident of Mauritius, or is registered or incorporated in Mauritius, the National Sanctions Committee Secretariat shall cause the notice issued under subsection (1) –

- (a) to be served at the designated party's last known residence address or business address in Mauritius, as the case may be; and
- (b) to be published in the Gazette and in 2 newspapers having wide circulation.

14. Review of declaration by National Sanctions Committee

(1) The National Sanctions Committee shall, regularly, but not later than 12 months after a declaration made under section 9 or 10, review whether such declaration continues to meet the criteria for declaration under this Act.

(2) Where the National Sanctions Committee determines that a declaration no longer meets the criteria for declaration under this Act, the Secretary for Home Affairs shall, on the direction of the National Sanctions Committee, cause the name and other particulars of the designated party to be removed from the list of designated parties.

(3) The National Sanctions Secretariat shall, immediately after the name and other particulars of the designated party has been removed from the list of designated parties –

- (a) give public notice, in 2 newspapers having wide circulation and in such other manner as the National Sanctions Committee may determine, of such changes to the list of designated parties;

- (b) direct FIU to immediately disseminate such changes on the list of designated parties to the supervisory authorities, the investigatory authorities, the reporting persons and any other relevant public or private agency; and
- (c) cause notice to be served at that party's last known residence address or business address in Mauritius, as the case may be.

15. Judicial review of declaration by Supreme Court

(1) A designated party may make an application to the Supreme Court for a judicial review of the declaration.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the Supreme Court shall examine, in camera, any security or intelligence reports or other information or evidence considered by the National Sanctions Committee and these reports, information or evidence shall not, for security reasons, be disclosed to any other person, including the designated party or its legal representatives.

PART IV – LISTED PARTIES

16. Listing proposals

(1) The National Sanctions Committee shall be responsible for identifying a party which meets the listing criteria to be listed as a listed party on a United Nations Sanctions List.

(2) (a) The National Sanctions Committee may, for the purpose of subsection (1), consult and seek assistance from any public sector agency, or other States or United Nations entities, as may be necessary to determine whether, on reasonable grounds, there is sufficient evidence to support the listing of a party on a United Nations Sanctions List.

(b) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a member of the National Sanctions Committee or a public sector agency shall furnish to the National Sanctions Committee any information, including confidential material, as may be required to assist the National Sanctions Committee in identifying a party under subsection (1).

(c) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where, at any time, a public sector agency receives or otherwise becomes aware of any information relevant to the listing of a party as a listed party on a United Nations Sanctions List, the public sector agency shall forthwith transmit that information to the National Sanctions Committee.

(3) Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that a party meets the relevant listing criteria, the National Sanctions Committee shall direct the Secretary for Home Affairs to propose to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, through the diplomatic channel, the name of a party which meets the listing criteria.

(4) A proposal for listing under this section shall not be conditional upon the existence of criminal proceedings and shall operate without prior notice to the proposed listed party.

(5) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall, in proposing the name of a party under subsection (3) to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee –

- (a) follow the procedures, including using standard forms for listing, contained in or as may be adopted pursuant to any relevant United Nations Security Council Resolution;
- (b) to the extent possible, provide as much relevant information on the proposed party, including –
 - (i) sufficient identifying information to allow for the accurate and positive identification of the party, and to the extent possible, the information required by the International Criminal Police Organisation (Interpol);
 - (ii) a statement of case which contains as much detail as possible on the basis of the listing, including specific information supporting a determination that the party meets the relevant listing criteria, the nature of the information, supporting information or documents that can be provided, and details of any connection between the proposed party and any currently listed party; and
 - (iii) such other relevant information as may be required under any United Nations Security Council Resolution; and
- (c) specify, where applicable, whether the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee may not make known the status of Mauritius as a designated State.

(6) Any information given under this section shall be given subject to conditions restricting the use and disclosure of the information imparted to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, provided that the statement of case referred to in subsection (5)(b)(ii) shall, upon request, be disclosed by the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, except for the parts the National Sanctions Committee identifies as being confidential.

17. Notification of listing

(1) Where a listed party is a citizen of Mauritius or resident in Mauritius, or is incorporated or registered in Mauritius, the National Sanctions Secretariat shall, in such manner as it may determine, notify the listed party of such listing pursuant to the relevant UNSCR.

(2) A notification under subsection (1) shall include –

- (a) the narrative summary of reasons for listing;
- (b) a description of the effects of listing, as provided in the relevant United Nations Security Council Resolutions;
- (c) the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee's procedures for considering delisting requests, including, in the case of the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida sanctions regime, the possibility of submitting such a request to the Ombudsperson; and
- (d) the provisions regarding available exemptions, including where relevant, the possibility of submitting such requests through the Focal Point.

18. Dissemination of United Nations Sanctions List

- (1) The National Sanctions Secretariat shall –
 - (a) immediately give public notice, in such manner as the National Sanctions Committee may determine, of the United Nations Sanctions Lists and any changes thereto, including any delisting therefrom; and
 - (b) direct FIU to immediately disseminate the public notice issued by the National Sanctions Secretariat, the United Nations Sanctions Lists and any changes thereto, including any delisting therefrom referred to in paragraph (a), to the supervisory authorities, the investigatory authorities, the reporting persons and any other relevant public or private agency.

[Amended 5/2020 (cio 9/7/2020).]

(2) Where a dissemination is made under subsection (1), sections 23 and 24 shall apply immediately.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1), the National Sanctions Secretariat shall, on a daily basis, monitor the United Nations Sanctions Lists.

[S. 18 amended by s. 20 of Act 5 of 2020 w.e.f. 9 July 2020.]

19. Request to National Sanctions Secretariat for delisting

(1) Notwithstanding this Act, a listed party who is a citizen of Mauritius or a resident of Mauritius, or is incorporated or registered in Mauritius, may submit a request to the National Sanctions Secretariat to take such measures in accordance with the relevant United Nations Security Council Resolution for the removal of his name as a the listed party from the relevant United Nations Sanctions List.

(2) Where the National Sanctions Committee is of the view that a listed party does not meet or no longer meets the criteria for designation as a listed party or where it has received a request under subsection (1), it shall submit a request for delisting to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee.

(3) Before submitting a request for delisting to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, the National Sanctions Secretariat may, where it considers it appropriate, consult with other relevant States or United Nations entities.

(4) When submitting a request for delisting to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, the National Sanctions Secretariat shall follow such procedures, including using any standard form for delisting as may be adopted by the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, and the request shall contain the reasons for submitting the delisting request.

20. Request to Office of Ombudsperson or Focal Point for delisting

Notwithstanding section 19, a listed party may submit a petition for delisting directly to the Office of the Ombudsperson or the Focal Point, as the case may be.

21. Delisting requests for dead individuals and defunct entities

(1) Where a listed party is a citizen of Mauritius or resident of Mauritius, or is incorporated or registered in Mauritius, and is confirmed to be dead or defunct, as the case may be, the Secretary for Home Affairs shall, through the Mauritius Mission to the United Nations, submit a request for the delisting of that party.

(2) When submitting a request for delisting to the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, the National Sanctions Secretariat shall follow such procedures, including using any standard form for delisting as may be adopted by the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, and the request shall contain the reasons for submitting the delisting request.

22. Notice of delisting

(1) Where a delisted party is a citizen of Mauritius or resident of Mauritius, or is incorporated or registered in Mauritius, the National Sanctions Secretariat shall immediately notify, in 2 newspapers having wide circulation and in such manner as it may determine, the listed party that his name has been removed from the relevant United Nations Sanctions List.

(2) Where the name of a listed party is removed from the relevant United Nations Sanctions List, any freezing order or prohibition under this Act shall immediately cease to apply.

PART V – SANCTIONS AGAINST DESIGNATED PARTIES AND LISTED PARTIES

Sub-Part A – Prohibition to Deal with Funds or Other Assets or Make Funds or Other Assets Available

23. Prohibition to deal with funds or other assets of designated party or listed party

(1) Subject to this Act, no person shall deal with the funds or other assets of a designated party or listed party, including –

- (a) all funds or other assets that are owned or controlled by the designated party or listed party, and not just those that can be tied to –
 - (i) a particular terrorist act, plot or threat;

- (ii) a particular act, plot or threat of proliferation;
- (b) those funds or other assets that are wholly or jointly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the designated party or listed party;
- (c) funds or other assets derived or generated from funds or other assets owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the designated party of listed party, and
- (d) funds or other assets of a party acting on behalf of, or at the direction of, the designated party or listed party.

(2) Where a prohibition is in force, nothing shall prevent any interest which may accrue, or other earnings due, on the accounts held by a listed party, or payments due under contracts, agreements or obligations that arose prior to the date on which those accounts became subject to the prohibition, provided that any such interest, earnings and payments continue to be subject to the prohibition.

(3) Where a party is listed pursuant to UNSCR 1737 and the listing continues pursuant to UNSCR 2231, or is listed pursuant to UNSCR 2231, the National Sanctions Committee may authorise the listed party to make any payment due under a contract, an agreement or an obligation, provided that the National Sanctions Committee –

- (a) is satisfied that the contract, agreement or obligation was entered prior to the listing of such party;
- (b) is satisfied that the contract, agreement or obligation is not related to any of the prohibited items, materials, equipment, goods, technologies, assistance, training, financial assistance, investment, brokering or services referred to in UNSCR 2231 and any future successor resolutions;
- (c) is satisfied that that the payment is not directly or indirectly received from, or made to, a person or entity subject to the measures in paragraph 6 of Annex B to UNSCR 2231; and
- (d) has, 10 working days prior to such authorisation, notified the United Nations Sanctions Committee of its intention to authorise such payment.

(4) Any person who holds, controls or has in his custody or possession any funds or other assets of a designated party or listed party shall immediately notify the National Sanctions Secretariat of –

- (a) details of the funds or other assets against which action was taken in accordance with subsection (1);
- (b) the name and address of the designated party or listed party;
- (c) details of any attempted transaction involving the funds or other assets, including –
 - (i) the name and address of the sender;
 - (ii) the name and address of the intended recipient;
 - (iii) the purpose of the attempted transaction;
 - (iv) the origin of the funds or other assets; and
 - (v) where the funds or other assets were intended to be sent.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5 million rupees or twice the amount of the value of the funds or other assets, whichever is greater, and to imprisonment for a term of not less than 3 years.

24. Prohibition on making funds or other assets available to designated party or listed party available

(1) Subject to this Act, no person shall make any funds or other assets or financial or other related services available, directly or indirectly, or wholly or jointly, to or for the benefit of –

- (a) a designated party or listed party;
- (b) a party acting on behalf, or at the direction, of a designated party or listed party; or
- (c) an entity owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a designated party or listed party.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5 million rupees or twice the amount of the value of the funds or other assets, whichever is the greater, and imprisonment for a term not less than 3 years.

Sub-Part B – Reporting Persons to Identify Funds or Other Assets of Designated Party or Listed Party

25. Reporting obligations

(1) Where a party is declared as a designated party or listed as a listed party, every reporting person shall, immediately, verify whether the details of the designated party or listed party match with the particulars of any customer, and if so, to identify whether the customer owns any funds or other assets in Mauritius, including the funds or other assets referred to in section 23(1).

(2) (a) Where funds or other assets or no funds or other assets are identified by the reporting person, the reporting person shall make a report to the National Sanctions Secretariat.

(b) Where a report is made under paragraph (a), the reporting person shall, in addition, report same to its relevant supervisory authority.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (2)(a) or (b) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5 million rupees and to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 10 years.

Sub-Part C – Freezing Order of Funds or Other Assets of Designated Party

26. Application for freezing order

(1) (a) Where the Secretary for Home Affairs declares a party as a designated party, he shall, within a reasonable time of that declaration, make an ex parte application to the Designated Judge for a freezing order of the funds or other assets of the designated party.

(b) Where the Designated Judge is satisfied, on a balance of probabilities, that the designated party qualifies to be declared as such under this Act, he shall grant a freezing order which shall remain in force as long as the party is a designated party.

(2) Where a freezing order is in force, nothing shall prevent any interest which may accrue, or other earnings due, on the frozen accounts of the designated party, or payments due under contracts, agreements or obligations that arose prior to the date on which those accounts became subject to the freezing order, provided that any such interest, earnings and payments continue to be subject to the freezing order.

(3) For the purpose of this section, the Designated Judge shall, where required, examine, in camera, and in the absence of the designated party, any security or intelligence reports or other information or evidence considered by the National Sanctions Committee and these reports, information or evidence shall not, for security reasons, be disclosed to any other person, including the designated party or its legal representatives.

(4) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall give public notice, in 2 newspapers having wide circulation and in such other manner as he may determine, and notify any reporting person or any party that holds, controls or has in his or its custody or possession the funds or other assets of the designated party of any freezing order granted under this section.

27. Application for variation of freezing order

(1) A designated party may apply to the Designated Judge for a variation of the freezing order in order to use the funds or other assets, or any part thereof, necessary for ordinary expenses or extraordinary expenses and he shall cause a copy of the application to be served on the Secretary for Home Affairs.

(2) The Designated Judge may grant, partly grant or refuse the application made under subsection (1).

Sub-Part D – Rights of Bona Fide Third Parties

28. Rights of bona fide third parties regarding freezing order

(1) Any freezing order granted under this Act shall apply without prejudice to the rights of bona fide third parties.

(2) Any person who has an interest in any funds or other assets which is subject to a freezing order granted under this Act may apply to the Designated Judge to exclude his interest from the freezing order.

(3) The Designated Judge shall grant an application made under subsection (2) where he is satisfied that –

- (a) the applicant has a legitimate legal interest in the funds or other assets;
- (b) no participation, collusion or involvement with respect to the terrorist act or financing of terrorism offence which is the subject of the proceedings can be imputed to the applicant;
- (c) the applicant lacked knowledge and was not intentionally ignorant of the illegal use of the funds or other assets or if he had knowledge, did not freely consent to its illegal use;
- (d) the applicant did not acquire any right in the funds or other assets from a designated party or listed party that gives rise to a reasonable inference that the right was transferred for the purpose of avoiding the eventual subsequent freezing of the funds or other assets; and
- (e) the applicant did all that could reasonably be expected to prevent the illegal use of the funds or other assets.

(4) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall, on receipt of an order from the Designated Judge varying a freezing order, take steps to publicise the order immediately.

(5) Any person who holds, controls or has in his custody or possession funds or other assets of a bona fide third party, shall immediately comply with the application granted under subsection (3).

(6) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (5) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(7) For the purpose of this section, the Designated Judge shall, where required, examine, in camera, and in the absence of the designated party, any security or intelligence reports or other information or evidence considered by the National Sanctions Committee and these reports, information or evidence shall not, for security reasons, be disclosed to any other person, including the designated party or their legal representatives.

(8) Where the Designated Judge determines that the applicant is not a bona fide third party, the applicant shall bear the cost of the application.

29. Rights of bona fide third parties regarding prohibition

(1) Any prohibition under this Act shall apply without prejudice to the rights of bona fide third parties.

(2) Any person who has an interest in any funds or other assets which is subject to a prohibition under this Act may apply to the National Sanctions Committee to exclude his interest from the prohibition.

(3) The National Sanctions Committee shall grant an application made under subsection (2) where it is satisfied that –

- (a) the applicant has a legitimate legal interest in the funds or other assets;
- (b) no participation, collusion or involvement with respect to the terrorist act or financing of terrorism offence which is the subject of the proceedings can be imputed to the applicant;
- (c) the applicant lacked knowledge and was not intentionally ignorant of the illegal use of the funds or other assets or if he had knowledge, did not freely consent to its illegal use;

- (d) the applicant did not acquire any right in the funds or other assets from a designated party or listed party that gives rise to a reasonable inference that the right was transferred for the purpose of avoiding the prohibition under this Act; and
- (e) the applicant did all that could reasonably be expected to prevent the illegal use of the funds or other assets.

(4) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall, on receipt of an order from the National Sanctions Committee to vary the prohibition in accordance with this section, take steps to publicise the order immediately.

(5) Any person who holds, controls or has in his custody or possession funds or other assets of a bona fide third party, shall immediately comply with the application granted under subsection (3).

(6) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (5) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(7) For the purpose of this section, the Designated Judge shall, where required, examine, in camera, and in the absence of the designated party, any security or intelligence reports or other information or evidence considered by the National Sanctions Committee and these reports, information or evidence shall not, for security reasons, be disclosed to any other person, including the designated party or their legal representatives.

(8) Where the Designated Judge determines that the applicant is not a bona fide third party, the applicant shall bear the cost of the application.

Sub-Part E – Application to Use Funds or Other Assets of Listed Party

30. Application by listed party

(1) Where, pursuant to section 23, there is prohibition to use the funds or other assets of a listed party and the listed party wishes to use, for ordinary or extraordinary expenses, those funds or other assets, or any part thereof, the listed party shall, subject to section 31, make an application to the National Sanctions Committee for variation of the prohibition.

(2) An application made under subsection (1) shall include the following information –

- (a) the listed party's name and address;

- (b) the listed party's permanent reference number on the relevant United Nations Sanctions List;
- (c) the listed party's bank information, including, name and address of bank and account number;
- (d) purpose of payment, the expenses and justification for the determination of the expenses falling under ordinary or extraordinary expenses;
- (e) amount of instalment;
- (f) number of instalments;
- (g) payment starting and ending date;
- (h) bank transfer or direct debit;
- (i) interests;
- (j) specific funds or other assets proposed to be unfrozen; and
- (k) such other information as National Sanctions Committee may determine.

(3) Where the National Sanctions Committee determines that the funds or other assets are to be used for the purposes specified in subsection (2), the National Sanctions Secretariat shall notify the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee that the National Sanctions Committee does not intend to object to the application.

(4) The National Sanctions Secretariat shall notify the listed party of the decision of the United Nations Sanctions Committee for the use of the funds or other assets, or any part thereof, for ordinary or extraordinary expenses, provided that for ordinary expenses, in the absence of a decision within the 3 working days of the notification under subsection (3), it shall be deemed that the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee has not objected to the use of the funds or other assets, or any part thereof.

31. Application by listed party on ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions List

(1) (a) Notwithstanding section 30, a listed party on ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions List that wishes to use, for ordinary or extraordinary expenses, any funds or other assets, or any part thereof, shall request ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions Committee, through the Focal Point, to exempt such funds or other assets, or any part thereof.

(b) The listed party that makes a request under paragraph (a) shall serve a copy of the request to the National Sanctions Committee.

(2) Where ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions Committee approves the use of the funds or other assets, or any part thereof, the National Sanctions Secretariat shall notify the listed party of the decision of ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions Committee for the use of the funds or other assets, or any part thereof, for ordinary or extraordinary expenses.

Sub-Part F – Administrator to Manage Funds or Other Assets of Designated Party or Listed Party

32. Appointment of administrator

(1) Where, pursuant to section 23, there is prohibition to use the funds or other assets of a listed party and the Secretary for Home Affairs is satisfied that any of the funds or other assets of the listed party needs to be managed, the Secretary for Home Affairs may appoint a fit and proper person as administrator to manage those funds or other assets.

(2) Where, pursuant to a freezing order granted under section 26, the Designated Judge is satisfied that any of the funds or other assets of the designated party needs to be managed, the Designated Judge may appoint a fit and proper person as administrator to manage those funds or other assets.

(3) The remuneration payable to an administrator appointed under subsection (1) or (2) shall be –

- (a) determined by the Secretary for Home Affairs; and
- (b) recovered as an ordinary expense from the funds or other assets of the designated party or listed party.

(4) Any administrator appointed under this section shall manage those funds or other assets and, in doing so, he shall –

- (a) comply with such directions given to him by the Secretary for Home Affairs; and
- (b) act in good faith and shall exercise care, diligence and skill that a reasonable person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

(5) Unless otherwise terminated, the duties of the administrator shall cease upon the delisting of the designated party or listed party and the administrator shall use his best endeavours to facilitate the return the funds or other assets under his management.

Sub-Part G – Mistaken Identity

33. Application for redress

(1) A party that is affected by a freezing order or a prohibition under this Act and claiming not to be the one against whom the freezing order has been made or the prohibition applies, may apply to the Secretary of Home Affairs for redress.

(2) The Secretary for Home Affairs shall refer the application under subsection (1) to the National Sanctions Committee for consideration.

(3) Where the National Sanctions Committee establishes, after the verification of identity documentation and other information and, where applicable, consultation with the relevant United Nations Sanctions Committee, that the party is not the actual designated party or listed party, it shall immediately advise the Secretary for Home Affairs of its finding.

(4) Upon the advice of the National Sanctions Committee, the Secretary for Home Affairs shall immediately take such measures as he may deem necessary, to unfreeze the funds or other assets of a party referred to under subsection (3) or clarify that any prohibition under this Act shall not apply to him.

(5) Any person who holds, controls or has in his custody or possession the frozen funds or other assets of a party referred to under subsection (3), shall immediately shall immediately unfreeze those funds or other assets.

(6) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (5) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(7) An individual claiming to have been subjected to prohibition measures as a result of false or mistaken identification or confusion with individuals included on the ISIL (Da'esh) & Al-Qaida Sanctions List may, through the Focal Point, transmit a communication to this effect for consideration by the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions Committee.

Sub-Part H –Freezing Order or Prohibition to Lapse Upon Delisting

34. Lapse of freezing order or prohibition

(1) Where the name of a designated party has been removed from the list of designated parties or where the name of a listed party has been removed from the relevant United Nations Sanctions List –

- (a) any freezing order made against the designated party or any prohibition against the listed party under this Act shall lapse with immediate effect; and
- (b) any reporting person or any other person who holds, controls or has in his custody or possession any funds or other assets of the designated party or listed party, shall immediately unfreeze those funds or other assets.

(2) A prohibition under section 23 shall lapse where a freezing order is granted under section 26.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1)(b) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

PART VI – ARMS EMBARGO AND TRAVEL BAN

35. Arms embargo
