COURTS (CIVIL PROCEDURE) ACT

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Courts (Civil Procedure) Act.

1A. Interpretation

“Chief Executive” means the Chief Executive of a local authority;

“local authority” has the same meaning as in the Local Government Act.

[S. 1A inserted by s. 165 (5) (a) of Act 36 of 2011 w.e.f. 15 December 2011.]

2. Action by writ of summons

(1) Any action on a bill of exchange or a promissory note commenced within 6 months from the date on which the bill or note became due and payable may be commenced by writ of summons in Form A of the Schedule.

(2) The plaintiff may, on proof of personal service within the jurisdiction on the defendant of—

- (a) a writ under subsection (1); or
- (b) an order for leave to proceed together with a copy of the writ of summons and indorsements thereon where the defendant has not obtained leave to appear and appeared to the writ according to the exigencies thereof, at once sign final judgment in Form B of the Schedule, for any sum not exceeding the sum indorsed on the writ together with interest at the rate specified (not exceeding the legal rate of interest) or where none is specified, the rate of interest allowed by law in such cases to the date of the judgment, and a sum for costs to be fixed by the Judge, unless the plaintiff claims more than such fixed sum, in which case the costs shall be taxed in the ordinary way, and the plaintiff may, upon such judgment, issue execution forthwith.

3. Leave to defend

A Judge shall, upon application within 12 days from service under section 2, give leave to appear to such writ, and to defend the action, on the defendant paying into Court the sum indorsed on the writ, or upon affidavits satisfactory to the Judge, which disclose a legal or equitable defence, or such facts as would make it incumbent on the holder to prove consideration, or such other facts as the Judge thinks sufficient to support the application, and on such terms as to security or otherwise as the Judge thinks fit.

4. Setting aside judgment or execution

After judgment, the Court or a Judge may, under special circumstances, set aside the judgment, and, if necessary, stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to appear to the writ, and to defend the action, if it appears reasonable to the Court or Judge to do so and on such terms as to the Court or Judge seems just.

5. Deposit of bill or note in Court

In any proceedings under this Act, the Court or Judge may order the bill or note sought to be proceeded upon, to be forthwith deposited with an officer of the Court, and further order that all proceedings be stayed until the plaintiff has given security for the costs of the proceedings.

6. Holder's remedies

The holder of a dishonoured bill of exchange or promissory note shall have the same remedies for the recovery of the expenses incurred in protesting such bill or note, for non-acceptance or non-payment, or otherwise, by reason of such dishonour, as he has under this Act for the recovery of the amount of such bill or note.

7. Action against several parties

The holder of a bill of exchange or promissory note may, if he thinks fit, issue one writ of summons according to this Act, against all or any number of the parties to such bill or note, and such writ of summons shall be the commencement of an action against the parties named in it, and all subsequent proceedings against those parties shall be in like manner, so far as may be, as if separate writs of summons had been issued.

8. Supplementary rules

(2) Where the Judge thinks that such order ought to be granted, he shall issue the order, which shall be served personally by an usher and the debtor shall be bound to appear before the Court on the day appointed in the order.

(1) An application for leave to file and serve, or to issue and serve, as the case may be, an initial process on a defendant out of the jurisdiction shall be supported by affidavit stating that in the belief of the deponent the plaintiff has a good cause of action, and showing in what place or country the defendant is or probably may be found, and whether such defendant is a Commonwealth citizen or not, and the grounds upon which the application is made.

(2) No leave shall be granted unless the Court or Judge is satisfied that the case is a proper one for service out of the jurisdiction under this Act.

(3) Where the Court or Judge is satisfied that the plaintiff has no means of ascertaining where the defendant is or probably may be found, leave to issue the initial process may nevertheless be granted where leave has been obtained to bring the action before the District Court.

63. Limitation on time for appearance may, on the application of the plaintiff, make such order for substituted or other service or for the substitution for service of notice, by advertisement or otherwise as seems just.

(b) Such application shall be supported by an affidavit specifying the grounds upon which the application is made.

(2) The order made under this section shall specify the time after the substituted or other service has been effected, or after the publication of the notice by advertisement or otherwise, within which the defendant is to enter an appearance, and such time shall be limited as specified in section 63.

[S. 65 (1) (a) reprinted by Reprint 3 of 1983.]

66. Leave to plaintiff to proceed

(2) The plaintiff shall prove his case under subsection (1) in such manner as the Court shall direct, and the making of such proof shall be a condition precedent to the plaintiff obtaining judgment.

67. Actions begun by service in Mauritius

Where a defendant who has been personally served with an initial process in Mauritius quits Mauritius without leaving an attorney or agent to make an appearance for or represent and defend him, the Court or Judge may, after the time within which the defendant so served within the jurisdiction has entered an appearance, order that all ulterior orders, summonses, notices or process be not served personally, but be served at the defendant's last place of abode or business in Mauritius, and such service shall be sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to proceed in the action as provided in section 66.

68. Election of special domicile

(1) Where an absent defendant has in Mauritius no attorney or agent duly empowered to make an appearance for or represent and defend him, but has in the particular contract on which he is sued, specially elected a domicile for service, service at such domicile shall, for the particular matters or things for which the domicile was selected, be sufficient not only for the initial process, but also for all ulterior orders, summonses, notices, or processes in the action.

(2) In the case of minors or interdicted persons, the initial process, and all ulterior orders, summonses, notices or processes in the action shall also be served on the Ministère Public.

69. Where absent defendant’s agent unknown

(1) Where an absent defendant has in Mauritius an attorney or agent duly empowered to make an appearance for or represent and defend him, but such attorney or agent is unknown to the plaintiff, proceedings shall begin and be carried on as herein enacted and as if there were no such attorney or agent.

(2) Such attorney or agent may intervene at any stage in the proceedings and, by leave of the Court or Judge, enter an appearance for the absent defendant and defend the action, subject to such terms as to time, costs or otherwise as the Court or Judge thinks fit, having in view the reasons set forth by such attorney or agent for not having made himself known.

70. Service on defendants in other islands

(1) Service of any document, whether personal or otherwise, where the party to be served is in any of the other islands under the jurisdiction of the State of Mauritius, shall be effected by serving a copy at the Attorney-General’s Office, unless such person has in Mauritius an attorney or agent who may be served on his behalf.

(2) The copies served on the Attorney-General under subsection (1) shall be forwarded by him for service in the island.
