PART II – THE OPEN UNIVERSITY OF MAURITIUS

3. Establishment of Open University

(1) There is established, for the purposes of this Act, the Open University of Mauritius.

(2) The Open University shall be a body corporate.

4. Objects of Open University

The objects of the Open University shall be to—

- (a) advance and disseminate learning and knowledge through a diversity of means, with emphasis on information and communication technologies;
- (b) provide wider opportunities for education and training to the population, through open and distance learning, and promote lifelong learning;
- (c) encourage the use of open and distance learning at all levels of education and training through collaboration, optimal use of existing resources and good practices;
- (d) encourage and promote scholarship and conduct research and development in educational technology and related matters;
- (e) be the focal point for the provision of open and distance learning in Mauritius through the establishment of active partnerships with local public and private institutions, as well as overseas institutions engaged in providing education and training.

5. Functions of Open University

The Open University shall have such functions as are necessary to attain its objects most effectively and shall, in particular—

- (a) act as the national focal point for open and distance learning;
- (b) set standards for the provision of open and distance learning;
- (c) provide education and training through a diversity of means in such branches of knowledge, vocations and professions as the Open University may determine from time to time;
- (d) enter into affiliation with other institutions, local and overseas, which would assist in attaining any of the objects of the Open University;
- (e) co-operate with any local or overseas institution which has objects which are wholly or partly similar to its own;
- (f) provide consultancy and professional services, especially in open and distance learning;

- (g) plan and prescribe courses of study for degrees, diplomas or certificates through open and distance learning, with the collaboration of local and overseas providers of education and training;
- (h) hold examinations and grant degrees, including honorary degrees, diplomas, certificates or other academic awards, acting on its own or jointly with any other education and training institution;
- (i) accept examinations and periods of study of students at other universities or places of learning as equivalent to appropriate examinations and periods of study in the Open University and withdraw such acceptance at any time;
- (j) institute professorships, lectureships, tutorships and other academic positions necessary for imparting instruction, for preparing educational material or for conducting other academic activities, including supervision, designing and delivery of courses and evaluation of the work done by learners and appoint persons to such positions;
- (k) institute and award fellowships, scholarships, prizes and such other awards for recognition of merit as it thinks fit;
- (l) set up and maintain Regional Centres within this region of the world for the purpose of co-ordinating and supervising the work of regional study centres in the region and for performing such other functions as may be conferred on them by the Academic Council;
- (m) set up, maintain and recognise study centres, telecentres and practice centres for the purpose of advising, counselling, tutoring, obtaining practical experience or rendering any other assistance required by learners;
- (n) provide for the preparation, reception and distribution of instructional materials through differentiated media, including terrestrial, satellite, video, radio, print, web or compact disc media and others;
- (o) make provision for research and development in educational technology, instructional design, learner support and related matters;
- (p) provide, control and maintain discipline among the learners and academic and general staff and lay down the conditions of service of such staff, including their codes of conduct;
- (q) determine standards and specify conditions for the admission of learners to programmes of study at the Open University, which may include recognition of prior learning, experience, examination, evaluation and any other method of testing;
- (r) link up with Governmental and inter-governmental institutions and the private sector to support an enabling environment for the provision of education and training at certificate, diploma, graduate, post-graduate and research levels;
- (s) create partnerships with key institutions worldwide to deliver programmes of open and distance learning.

6. Powers of Open University

The Open University shall have such powers as are necessary to attain its objects and discharge its functions most effectively and may, in particular—

- (a) receive donations and gifts, contract loans, and lease, acquire, hold, maintain and dispose of any property, movable or immovable, including trust and Government property;
- (b) demand and receive such fees and charges as may be charged for courses of study, research and practical training and for admission to the examinations for degrees, diplomas and other academic qualifications;
- (c) co-operate with other universities and institutions of higher learning, professional bodies and organisations, both locally and from overseas, for such purposes as it considers necessary, including credit transfers and the award of joint degrees;
- (d) subject to the Public Procurement Act, enter into such contract or other arrangement as may be necessary;
- (e) subject to any other enactment, establish such broadcasting facility as may be required to enable the Open University to perform its functions;
- (f) appoint, on contract or otherwise, visiting professors, consultants, fellows, scholars, artists, course writers and other persons from within and outside Mauritius who may contribute to the advancement of the objects of the Open University;
- (g) do such other act as may be necessary for attaining any of its objects and carrying out its functions.

7. Admission of learners

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Open University shall be open to everyone.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall require the Open University to—
 - (a) admit to any course of study or research any person who does not possess the prescribed academic qualifications or standard, or prior experiential learning;
 - (b) retain on its roll a learner whose academic record is below the minimum standard required for the award of a degree, or other academic qualification; or
 - (c) admit or retain any learner whose conduct is prejudicial to its interests, or the rights and privileges of other learners or of the staff of the Open University.

8. Inquiries

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Prime Minister may, in respect of any matter connected with the Open University, institute an inquiry to be made by such person as he may appoint, in such manner as he may determine.

(2) Where the Prime Minister decides to institute an inquiry under subsection (1), he shall, in every case, give notice to the Chairperson of the Board of his intention to do so and the Board shall be entitled to be represented at such inquiry.

(3) The Prime Minister—

- (a) shall communicate to the Board his views with reference to the result of any such inquiry; and
- (b) may, after ascertaining the opinion of the Board, advise the Open University regarding the action to be taken and fix a time-limit for taking such action.

(4) The Board shall, within the time-limit so fixed, report to the Prime Minister the action taken or proposed to be taken on any advice tendered under subsection (3) (b).

(5) Where the Board does not take action within the time fixed or the action taken by the Board is, in the opinion of the Prime Minister, not satisfactory, the Prime Minister may, after considering any explanation or representation made by the Board, issue such directions as he thinks fit and the Board shall comply with any such directions.

PART III – ADMINISTRATION

9. The Board

There shall be a Board which shall consist of—

- (a) a Chairperson, to be appointed by the Prime Minister;
- (b) 7 persons to be appointed by the Minister, out of whom—

- (j) the maintenance of discipline among the staff and the learners;
- (k) the fees to be charged by the Open University;
- (l) the use of and access to any place of learning or research or resource within the Open University;
- (m) the Open University academic dress; and
- (n) the amendment of the Statutes.

(2) (a) The Academic Council may, with the approval of the Board, make rules for the purposes of this Act.

(b) The Board may, by resolution passed by a majority of not less than two thirds of its members present at that meeting, modify or refuse to approve any rules submitted by the Academic Council to it for approval.

PART VIII – MISCELLANEOUS

25. Intellectual property

(1) Without prejudice to any other enactment, all intellectual property arising out of any teaching material produced by or on behalf of the Open University shall vest in the Open University.

(2) Any intellectual property vested in the Open University may be made available for use on such terms as the Board may agree.

26. Legal proceedings and execution of documents

(1) The Open University shall act, sue and be sued, implead or be impleaded under its corporate name.

(2) Service of process by or on the Open University shall be sufficient if made on behalf of or on the Registrar.

(3) Every deed, cheque, act or document relating to the Open University shall be signed by the Chairperson and one other person authorised in that behalf by the Board.

27. – 28. —

29. Saving and transitional provisions

(1) In this section, “College” means the Mauritius College of the Air established under section 3 of the repealed Mauritius College of the Air Act.

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment, every person employed by the College shall be dealt with in accordance with this section.

(3) Every person who, at the commencement of this Act, is employed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the College shall be entitled to be transferred to the permanent and pensionable establishment of the Open University on terms and conditions which shall be not less favourable than those of his previous employment.

(4) The period of service of every person employed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the College, who is transferred to the Open University under subsection (3), shall be deemed to be an unbroken period of service with the Open University.

(5) No person employed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the College shall, on account of his transfer to the Open University or any resulting change in his job title, be entitled to claim that his employment has been terminated or adversely affected in breach of any enactment.

(6) Any person employed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the College who, within 28 days of the commencement of this Act, does not accept to be transferred to the Open University may—

- (a) at his request, be redeployed, so far as is practicable, to another statutory body, where vacancies in similar positions are available; or

- (b) opt for retirement on the ground of abolition of office and be paid his pension benefits in accordance with the Statutory Bodies Pension Funds Act and regulations made thereunder.

(7) (a) Subject to subsection (8), any person employed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the College, against whom any disciplinary inquiry, investigation or proceedings are pending or in process at the commencement of this Act—

- (i) who is not interdicted, shall be transferred to the permanent and pensionable establishment of the Open University on terms and conditions which shall be not less favourable than those of his previous employment;
- (ii) who is interdicted, may opt to—
 - (A) be transferred to the permanent and pensionable establishment of the Open University on terms and conditions which shall be not less favourable than those of his previous employment;
 - (B) retire on the ground of abolition of office and be paid pension benefits in accordance with the Statutory Bodies Pension Funds Act and regulations made thereunder, where no disciplinary charge is subsequently found proved against him.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) (ii) (B), the date of retirement on ground of abolition of office shall be deemed to be the date of coming into operation of this Act.

(8) Any disciplinary inquiry, investigation or proceedings, pending or in process at the commencement of this Act, against any person employed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the College, shall be taken up, continued or completed by the Open University and any resulting order or decision shall have the same force and effect as if made by the College.

(9) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the contract of every person employed on a fixed term performance contract by the College, which is valid at the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been entered into by the Open University and shall remain governed by its existing terms and conditions.

(10) The assets, funds and records of the College shall, at the commencement of this Act, vest in the Open University.

(11) All rights, obligations and liabilities subsisting in favour of or against the College shall, at the commencement of this Act, continue to exist under the same terms and conditions in favour of or against the Open University.

(12) All proceedings, judicial or otherwise, commenced before and pending at the commencement of this Act, by or against the College, shall be deemed to have been commenced, and may be continued, by or against the Open University.

(13) Notwithstanding section 7 (2), every person who, at the commencement of this Act, is registered for education and training purposes at the College shall be enrolled as a learner.

(14) Where this Act does not make provision for any transition, the Minister may make such regulations as may be necessary for such transition.

30. Commencement

(1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by Proclamation.

(2) Different dates may be fixed for the coming into operation of different sections of this Act.
