(4) The officer-in-charge of the Unit may, for the purpose of exercising any function of the Unit, issue a summons, in the form set out in the Schedule, to any person to—

- (a) attend such place at such time as he may direct; and
- (b) provide such written or oral information as may be necessary.

[S. 7 amended by s. 3 of Act 16 of 2016 w.e.f. 3 September 2016.]

8. Elderly Watch

(1) There shall be in every region designated by the Monitoring Committee an Elderly Watch.

(2) The functions of the Elderly Watch shall be to—

- (a) promote the welfare of elderly persons in the region for which it is responsible;
- (b) provide support to families that need assistance and protection for elderly persons;
- (c) endeavour to prevent acts of abuse on elderly persons;
- (d) report cases of repeated abuse of an elderly person to an officer of the Unit.

(3) Every Elderly Watch shall consist of—

- (a) such volunteers working for the care of elderly persons of the region as the Minister may appoint;
- (b) such voluntary organisation member of the Senior Citizens' Council as that Council may designate;
- (c) such public officer as the Minister may designate.

(4) (a) Every Elderly Watch shall be administered by a Managing Committee of not more than 10 persons, who shall be appointed by the members of the Elderly Watch.

(b) The Managing Committee shall regulate its proceedings in such manner as it thinks fit.

[S. 8 amended by s. 4 of Act 16 of 2016 w.e.f. 3 September 2016.]

9. Elderly Persons' Protection Order

(1) Where a Court is satisfied by information on oath that the officer-in-charge of the Unit has reasonable cause to believe that an elderly person has suffered, is suffering or is likely to suffer an act of abuse, the Court shall issue an elderly persons' protection order restraining the respondent from engaging in any conduct which may constitute an act of abuse and ordering him to be of good behaviour towards the elderly person.

(2) The information on oath referred to in subsection (1) and the elderly persons' protection order shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) On an application being made for an elderly person's protection order, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be served on the respondent requiring him to appear before the Court on such day as may be specified in the notice, not being later than 14 days after the date of the application, to show cause why the order applied for should not be made.

(4) An application for an elderly person's protection order shall be heard as a civil case between the parties.

(5) Where the Court is satisfied that there is a serious risk of harm being caused to the elderly person before the application may be heard and that the circumstances revealed in the application are such as to warrant the intervention of the Court even before the respondent is heard, the Court may—

- (a) issue an interim elderly person's protection order in such form as may be prescribed, restraining the respondent from engaging in any conduct which may constitute an act of abuse and ordering him to be of good behaviour towards the elderly person;
- (b) order the Commissioner of Police to provide police protection to the elderly person until such time as the interim order is served on the respondent or for such time as the particular circumstances of the case may justify.

(6) Where an interim elderly person's protection order is issued, the District Clerk shall immediately take steps to have a copy of the order served on the respondent requiring him to appear before the Court on such day as the order may specify to show cause why it should not be confirmed, varied or discharged.

(7) An interim elderly person's protection order shall, unless the Court directs otherwise, remain in force until such time as the Court makes a final pronouncement on the application for the elderly persons' protection order.

(8) (a) Where an elderly person's protection order is in force, either party may apply in Court for a variation or revocation of the order.

(b) The party applying for the variation or revocation of the order shall cause a copy of the application to be served on the other party.

(S. 9 not in operation.)

10. Protection from liability

No liability, civil or criminal, shall be incurred by a member or an officer of the Unit or the Elderly Watch in respect of any act done by him in good faith in the exercise of his functions under this Act.

11. Offences

(1) Any person who—

- (a) wilfully subjects an elderly person to ill-treatment, whether physical or verbal;

- (b) subjects an elderly person to prolonged mental or emotional harassment;
- (c) intentionally causes pecuniary loss or material prejudice to an elderly person, shall commit an act of abuse.

(2) Any person who—

- (a) commits an act of abuse;
- (b) wilfully fails to provide an elderly person under his care with adequate food, medical attention, shelter and clothing; or
- (c) fails to comply with a protection order, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

(3) Any person on whom a summons is served under section 7 (4) and who fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear at the time and place specified in the summons shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than 5,000 rupees and not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

[S. 11 amended by s. 5 of Act 16 of 2016 w.e.f. 3 September 2016.]

12. Regulations

(1) The Minister may, for the purposes of this Act, make such regulations as he thinks fit.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for the payment of fees and the levying of charges.

13. Commencement

(1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by Proclamation.

(2) Different dates may be fixed for the coming into operation of different sections of this Act.
