

REGISTRAR-GENERAL ACT

Cap 340 – 9 November 1912

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

1. Short title
2. Amalgamation of certain offices

REGISTRAR-GENERAL ACT

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Registrar-General Act.

2. Amalgamation of certain offices

(1) (a) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Public Service Commission may appoint a fit and proper person to undertake the discharge of all or any of the duties appertaining to the offices of Registrar-General, Conservator of Mortgages and Receiver of Registration Dues.

(b) The officer appointed under paragraph (a) shall be styled the Registrar-General, and all powers, authorities and duties by any enactment vested in or imposed on the Registrar-General, the Conservator of Mortgages or the Receiver of Registration Dues shall vest in and be exercised by that officer.

(3) The Deputy Registrar-General and the Assistant Registrar-General shall have and exercise, concurrently with the Registrar-General, all the powers and duties by any enactment vested in or imposed upon that officer as Registrar-General and Receiver of Registration Dues.

(4) The Deputy Registrar-General and any other officer authorised in writing by the Registrar-General shall, in addition, have and exercise, concurrently with the Registrar-General, all the powers vested in and duties imposed upon the Registrar-General as Conservator of Mortgages by any enactment.

(5) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Registrar-General, the Deputy Registrar-General and any officer authorised under subsection (4), in the performance of their duties as Conservator of Mortgages, shall each be held responsible for his own errors and omissions.

[S. 2 amended by Act 9 of 1997.]
